

Monaro Equestrian Association News

A small but enthusiastic group of riders attended the recent jumping competition which was held at the Jindabyne Equestrian Resort. Riders were able to compete at 3 heights but were only competitive in 2 of those heights. The riders were also permitted to complete 2 rounds of the same height and the best time was used as their competitive placing.

The club would like to thank the Thredbo Valley Distillery for their generous sponsorship of this annual event.

Results of the day were:
